FOREWORD

The theme of your 1954 "LARENIM" is a simple one— shoes and the steps they take. There are all kinds of shoes—old shoes, new shoes, big shoes, small shoes. And in each pair of shoes there is a student at Mineral Springs High School. Which pair fits you?

DEDICATION

TO

MR. VERLIN HUTCHINSON

Whose footsteps didn't go ahead, but walked along with ours and whose heart and mind were truly interested in our problems.

We, the Seniors of 1954, are happy to dedicate this issue of the "LARENIM".

CLASS POEM

THE YEARS SO FEW

*Mineral Springs High is our school,
But when we graduate, as a rule,
We'll be alumni forever then,
But we'll be thankful to the end—
For our teachers who were so dear,
Helping us to find the right career;
Students were our friends so true,
Pepping us up when everything was blue.
Time passed quickly from grade to grade,
With principals there to give us aid;
Then in high school we sure had fun,
Always keeping on the run.
All the seniors we looked up to,
But for us the years seemed so few;
Graduation at last came,
But for us it didn't seem the same.
This time it was us leaving M. S.—
We'll remember it forever, we must confess;
We're just the class of fifty-four,
Leaving to return no more.*

By—Jenny Bodenheimer

FAREWELL REFRAIN

By Jack Ibrahim

VERSE I.

Sometime our school days must finish,
Sometime our friends we must leave,
So try to be happy and carefree,
'tis sad but try not to grieve.

CHORUS

When we have finished school,
Then we must help to rule
This world so hard and cruel,
To some of our own class.
But don't be cross or blue,
I'll tell you what to do,
And then before I'm through,
You'll feel just fine and gay.
Some more advice remains,
Within this old refrain,
And it will help you gain
And keep both fame and fortune.
Then when your life is done,
And you are through with fun,
Let's hope that you are one
Who lived a useful life.

VERSE II.

When we're all grown old and gray,
Life may seem dreary and sad,
But then you will surely remember,
The parties and dances we had.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty four, do hereby will, bequeath, and give our thanks and deep gratitude to the members of the faculty who have patiently guided us through our years at Mineral Springs.

To our friends and classmates whom we leave behind we grant the following possessions:

I, Regina Dunn, leave my chair in the band to Carl Ray Caudle.

We, Wanda Hester, Helen Settle, and Shirley Owen, will our places in the dog house to Brenda Badgett, Rachel Kiser, and Rachel Stith.

I, Betty Brannock, pass on my jokes to Cynthia Strader in the hope that they will last her as long as they have me.

We, Jack Horn, Sherrill Wall, James Shouse, Ronald Hunt, Wesley Arrington, Jim Marion, and Alton Sealey, leave our D.O. jobs to all other ambitious boys.

I, Lucille Barkley, leave to my sister Marie my notebook which has been a faithful companion these four years.

We, Iris Branscomb, Margaret Adams, Shirley Chisholm, and Jane Bracken, will our status as married women to Becky Smith and Opal Walker.

I, David Wall, leave the presidency of the Student Council to anyone brave enough to take it.

I, Larry Van Horn, will my drawing pencils to Jean White.

I, Jenny Bodenheimer, leave my jeep to my sisters, Edna and Annie.

We, Janice Caudle and Barbara Hinshaw, leave laughing.

We, Faye Collins and Nancy Davis, will our basketball suits to Betty Davis and Glenda Easter.

I, Jack Mustin, leave my chewing gum to Gary Hancock.

I, Jim Boyles, will my towels and water buckets to Jennings Snider and Roger Easter.

I, Jo Ann Henley, leave my curly hair to girls who have permanents.

We, Pat Chitty, Betty Proctor, and Cleo Teague, leave our places on the "Beacon" staff to Nancy Portis, Betty McDowell, and Nancy Owen.

I, Jimmy Mickey, leave to Linda Kreegar my love . . . for the band.

We, Pat Thompson, Bob Holcomb, Nancy Kiger, and Jane Arrington, bequeath our annual staff secrets to Dorcas White, and Bill Randleman, Bill Harold.

We, Jack Ibrahim, Emory Cadd, Don Hayes, Dallas Davis, and Max Foster, will our talent on the football field to Herman Swartzel, James Mason, and Bill Huls.

I, Shirley Snow, leave my beauty to Jackie Heath.

We, Fred Hartlage and Bill Brown, will our sense of humor to Johnny Smoot.

I, Jim Inabinet, will my title of best-all-round to whoever deserves it.

We, Nancy Snow, Mary Lou Davis, and Madge Flup, will our ability to be best friends to Shelva Walker, Loretta Snow, and Sue Horn.

I, Rachel Ogburn, leave my black hair to Edith Forrester.

I, Cedric Upchurch, will my singing voice to Bob Lenoir.

We, Garvey Bauguess, J. W. Clark, and Harold Arnold, give our quiet ways to Bobby Southard and Bobby and Billy Hillman.

We, Bill Collins and Sarah Tuttle, leave our friendliness to Jamie Wilkes and Wanda Henley.

We, Ruth Rash, Jean Robertson, and Betty Grubbs, leave our long hair to Jean West and Jo Ann White.

We, Betty Willard, Louise Davis, and Ruth Kallam, leave our typewriters which "mispel" words to the mercy of next year's students.

I, Jim Davis, leave my brother Johnny to carry on where I left off.

I, Phyllis Jeffries, will my originality to Valinda Neal.

We, Nellie Tuttle, Alees Whitaker, Una Evans, Jean Cox, Dorothy Rhodes, and Peggy Gardner, leave economics and sociology with sad farewells.

We hereby set our hand and seal.

CLASS HISTORY

New faces, strange rules, sock hops, strange characters roaming the halls on initiation day—yes, they were all part of the thrills that enticed us, the new eighth graders of 1949, when we entered the threshold of a new life at Mineral Springs High School.

Why, with all the fun we were having besides learning reading, writing, and arithmetic, we could hardly believe it when vacation time rolled around.

After packing all the swimming and picnicking we could into 3 months of time, we were ready and willing when the old school bell rang once more.

We were happy-go-lucky kids when we began our Freshman year. But before we began to make any plans for our activities, we elected our class officers. They were Jim Inabinet, Janice Caudle and Jane Arrington. During the year we took parts in several activities, including basketball. Those lucky enough to wear uniforms were: David, Jim, Ivan, Max, Jimmy, Janice, Ruth, and Madge.

No sooner said than done, vacation was over and we began boarding the familiar school buses. My, but we were proud to be called "Sophomores." Our officers this year were Jim Inabinet, Janice Caudle, Anne Lloyd, and Bill Thomas. Remember what happened on the night of February 13? After much anticipation, we were having our dreams come true—It was the Soph Prom. Remember how well the theme of "Stardust" was carried out? Do you recall the school play, "Our Gal Sal?" To let the upper classmen know they weren't quite as dramatic — Helen Settle won the leading role, with Jim Davis and Phyllis Jeffries displaying excellent talent. Football season ended with Jim Boyles as Mgr.; Shirley Snow, Homecoming Queen; and Janice Caudle, an attendant.

Thus, we had finished two years of high school and eagerly welcomed the 52-53 year. Realizing the great responsibility to be bestowed upon them, we selected our officers thoughtfully this year. Rachel Ogburn, Jim Boyles, Lucille Barkley, and Betty Brannock were elected. Right away we began raising funds to promote plans for the year. Those students you saw selling cards, baking cakes, etc., were only contributing their share to make this year a success. Our activities included Twirp Season, square dances, Masquerade Ball, buying class rings, and the Jr. Sr. Prom. On April 30 the Juniors played hosts to the Seniors in the Robert E. Lee Ballroom. After a "Lavender and Old Lace" menu, music for the night was furnished by Buddy Klein and his Statesmen. Lucille Barkley, Nancy Kiger, Jim Inabinet, Rachel Ogburn, Jim Boyles, Phyllis Jeffries, Bill Collins, and Regina Dunn were chosen class marshals. Then we closed our Junior year with a class party at Miller Park. Despite the bad weather, the ten or twelve that made it had a good time.

Finally, we had reached our destination. We were the Seniors of 1954. At our first class meeting, we elected our officers who were. President, Don Hayes; "Veep," Bill Brown; Secretary, Phyllis Jeffries; and Treasurer, Janice Caudle. Our football thrill of the year came when the team defeated Walkertown for the county title. Janice Caudle and Wanda Hester were chosen Sr. Class attendants for our home-coming game with Mt. Airy. Senior stars honored were Jim Inabinet, Max Foster, Fred Hartlage, Emory Cadd, Don Hayes, Dallas Davis, Jack Mustin, Jack Ibrahim, and Jim Boyles. The main activities during the year have been: selecting Mascots, electing superlatives, Sr. Follies, and Sr. Play.

Then Spring finds us practicing Kid's Day, Class Night, and Graduating programs. To some, it is a time of rejoicing, while others shed tears of sadness. Thus, we bring to a close the vivid memories of our high school career; and we, the Seniors of '54 leave our alma mater to part and go our separate ways.

Betty Brannock, Historian

PROPHECY

What! Where am I?

"You're in heaven, boy!"

But how, what happened?

"You shouldn't have sat on the Duke side and yelled for Carolina, son. Those Duke students and alumni really worked you over. If you'd like, you can peep over this cloud and see what's happening down on earth."

Say, the old home town looks different.

"Oh yes, I forgot to tell you it took us a few years to get you here. You just did make it! Well, you enjoy yourself, I've got some affairs to see after."

Gee, may as well try my wings. Gosh, look at that plane. I've seen that pilot before. Well I'll be a wingless angel, it's Bill Brown and the co-pilot is Bob Jenkins. And there's Wesley Arrington, the mechanic.

Boy, what heavenly music! Must be some of the passengers. It's Don Hayes, Cedric Upchurch, Fred Hartlage, and 'Corky' Carmichael; they have formed a quartet, The Angelaires.

There's Ruth Kallam, Peggy Owen, Dot Swisher, Betty Proctor, and Sarah Tuttle; by their uniforms I think they must be stewardesses.

I wonder who the artist is—sitting beside the window painting the clouds. Why, it's Larry Van Horn!

Think I'll flit down to earth and see what the other kids in my class are doing. Say, there's a big dance down here; think I'll have a look. Ah, hear that music—why, that's Dave Wall leading the band. And there's Jim Davis, Jim Mickey, Phyllis Jeffries, Helen Settle, and Shirley Jones playing away. Ha! Ha! Bernie Mitchell and Jane Ogburn are sure having a tough time trying to dance with two kids hanging onto them. Now, the entertainment; those clowns are really funny. No, it can't be—Jim Boyles and Billy Collins! Well, guess I'll be flying along. Wait! That couple in the car looks familiar, and they should—it's Jack Horn and Lucille Barkley. No wonder they didn't get out; there's a car full of kids.

Seems to be a crowd at the stadium; must be a ball game. No, it's the races. Why, I know all those drivers! Alvin Crews, Dallas Davis, Jim Marion, Albert Moore, Garvey Bauguess and Ivan Whiteheart. Boys, you'd better be careful or I'll soon have company.

Think I'll just float into the movie. The ticket seller is none other than Phyllis Coe. Ah, just in time for the previews. "Coming: the greatest musical comedy in years—"The Magic of a Song"—starring the world famous comedienne, Barbara Hinshaw. Also featuring the Four Springers (the top girls' quartet in the country with Carol Easter, Shirley Chisholm, Betty Brannock and Nancy Snow) and Jim Southern and his piano." Now, the main feature. "The Dark Hall" with Jim Morgan, Shirley Snow, Wanda Hester, and introducing Hollywood's newest star—Tommy Tally.

That was a swell movie. Guess I'd better be getting back. No, I believe I'll see the news. Flash—Regina Dunn elected to Senate by landslide! Pat Chitty has succeeded in her channel swim. Jack Ibraham has eclipsed the professional basketball scoring record. The Greenwaves have just won the national women's basketball title; some of the game's stars were Faye Collins, Janice Caudle, Madge Fulp, Nancy Davis and Mary Lou Davis. The president of the Bus Drivers' Union, Archie Walker, has appointed Joe

PROPHECY

Marshall, Harold Elliott, and Jim Stevens as members of his cabinet. The famed Teague Girls Chorus under the direction of Cleo Teague will soon begin a world tour. The group features such stars as Margaret Adams, Mary Ellen West, Nellie Tuttle and Dorothy Grubbs. This concludes the latest news.

Now to find some more of my old classmates. 'Wall's Cafe—I wonder, could that be, yes, there's Sherrill Wall's office in the back. That's Cleve Davis dipping ice cream, and Peggy Gardner, Betty Brubbs, Martha Hancock, Jean Roberson, and Ruth Rash waiting on the customers. I wonder why the good-looking men get the quickest service! Why, there's Shirley Owen; she's the cashier. Uh! Oh! There's a customer causing a disturbance. Here comes the bouncer. It's Alton Sealy!

I think I'll go take a look at old M. S. Everything is nearly the same, but I don't see any of the faculty. Oh, they are having a teacher's meeting in the office. Wonder who the lady giving all the orders is—it's Principal Rachel Ogburn! What a faculty! There's Harold Arnold, Polly Tuttle, Jo Ann Henley, Nancy Kiger, Barbara Mayberry, Alees Whitaker, Dot Rhodes. I bet these kids learn to sing with Mildred Wall directing the glee club. While I'm here I think that I'll have a look at football practice. Wow! They can't miss with Emory Cadd as head coach and Max Foster and Jack Mustin as his assistants.

Must be a broken window those fellows are fixing. It's Jim Simmons, School Maintenance man, and his helper Dave Queen.

None of the others are here; think I'll try Ogburn Station. My, the place has really changed! This seems to be a newspaper office. It is, 'The Greenfoot' with editor Jenny Bodenheimer and reporters Jean Cox, Shirley Wilkins, J. W. Clark, and Lois Styers. David Enochs and Don Westmorland should be able to get the paper printed.

Here's a new variety store, too, and I see Iris Branscomb is the proprietor. Pat Thompson ought to be an excellent shoe salesman by now, but I imagine Jo Ann Thompson takes in more money at the toy counter. I wonder if all those kids running around in the store are hers. Betty Willard and Virginia Moore seem to be selling lots of feet covers in the hoisery department.

I can't find any more of my old friends, but probably they all made good. Think I'll go back and ask St. Peter where they are.

"Why, son, if you will just fly out over the ocean you'll find them."

I've been flying for ever so long, but I don't see them. That ship is the only thing I see. Maybe I'd better have a closer look.

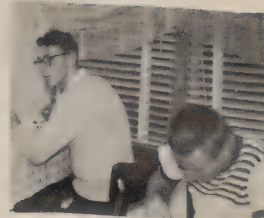

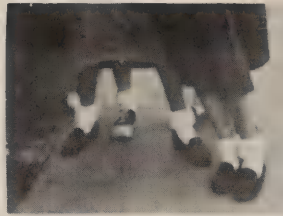

Now I see what St. Peter meant! Those swab-bies cleaning the ship are Bob Holcomb, Dean Reeves, and Ronald Hunt; Kenneth Hartman and Ken Thomas are cleaning the engine room; Una Evans and Louise Davis are the cooks; Jane and Maxine Bracken have volunteered to make this voyage and keep Admiral Bobby Daniels' cabin clean. Here's a picture of the Navy's favorite pin up, Jane Arrington, and the naval boxing champ, James Shouse.

Seems to me that there ought to be one more of the seniors of '54, but I don't see anyone else and I can't remember who it is. Oh, well, I have plenty of time to find out later, but for now, Pink Cloud, here I come! Swoosh!!! What was that? That was Jack Nelson; he must be at last heading for the moon in his rocket ship.

Whether or not this prophecy comes true, I hope for all the seniors of 1953-54 that their clouds will always have a silver lining.

To Jacquelyn,

as fraternal brothers sisters there is always a note of sadness the same you for m.v. handomen. The little girl on drums shall always be remembered by me. Next year
I would like to see your uniform filled with blue ribbons: you can do it, too! Keep everything going along smoothly.
Regina. Dec 1911

Dear Jackie,

I have enjoyed knowing and growing up with you. Keep up the good work in the band and I'll look up to you next year as a big senior.
Love,
Wanda

Remember our good times in Business Arithmetic.
Lots of luck to you. So you great, yes.
Jackie,
Wayne Layman

I've enjoyed these years with you and living beside
you. I wish you success in the band. You're going a long way so far and hope you can go further. The Ja around.
Love,
Dor

Jackie you are a very sweet gal! Have lots of fun this summer

Jackie,
I don't know what to say because we have had so many good times together. I just hope we can have ~~many~~ more.
I also hope we can always be together. We have had a great time together.
Love you always.
